

Footpath from Knaresborough RW station to Yorkshire Yoga

When you come out of the station (marked X on map up above), proceed up Station Road or Hilton Lane (depending on where you came from) to the High Street.

Turn Right onto the High Street and cross over the High Street to Raw Gap Lane – on the corner is a bridal shop and across is a pizza shop.

Go up Raw Gap until you get to Stockwell Road, turn left and go over bridge. On the right is a footpath alongside Robert Agaard fireplace shop. This becomes a cinder track going alongside allotments and it eventually comes out through the trees to Yorkshire Yoga at the end of Halfpenny Close (next to the playing fields).
